

Issa-Diop NDOYE

Senior Expert Engineer specialized in local content, training, consulting and support of companies and development organizations

Associate Director of SETHIN (Dakar)

Senior Expert/Consultant in charge of development, partnerships and international for ACP-ENERGY in west Africa

Areas of intervention

- Engineering and Development of Natural Resources and Mining Projects (Water, Oil&Gas Mines),
- Training engineering(Capacity Building, Technology Transfer, Local Content) and speaker
- Tropical development projects
- Decentralised and international cooperation
- Advice and support for export businesses.

More than 30 years of experience in the field of Studies, Implementation and Evaluation of Development Projects in various and cross sectors (Hydraulics/Development, Local content Oil&Gas, Territorial Development and Intercommunality, Training Engineering, Social Engineering). Training of engineers and development managers.

Current activities

Based in Paris and Dakar part of the year, I am currently working as:

- Expert consultancy on behalf of public structures, companies in the energy sector (Oil&Gas), mining and training in a transversal manner
- Engineer-trainer and lecturer at engineering training institutes, technical managers and universities for Master 2 and continuing education, Lecturer at training engineering and pedagogical organizations (continuing and tailor-made training, training strategy and policy, evaluation)

Geographical areas of experience:

Europe, Africa (Senegal and Sahel countries), Maghreb (Tunisia, Algeria), Middle East, Turkey

Member of professional networks:

- ACP Energies:Association des consultants pétroliers et Énergies, Paris Ruel Malmaison (France),website: www.acp-france.org)
- Groupe des professionnels sénégalais du Oil and gas GPSOG :site web :www.gpsog.net

